Robert Gordon University: career focused degrees

With one of the best graduate employment rates in the UK, an outstanding reputation for teaching excellence and a truly spectacular modern campus, Robert Gordon University is a fantastic option for ambitious students.

Situated in Aberdeen, Robert Gordon University is home to 16,500 students from more than 65 countries. The University offers an extensive range of highly ranked and innovative degrees, with a focus on developing practical experience and skills, underpinning these with vital academic knowledge.

Robert Gordon University has outstanding links with a range of industry sectors, including oil and gas, health, life sciences and tourism, and provides graduates with outstanding development and career opportunities.

The University offers far more than high rankings and career focused learning – the riverside campus provides a unique environment in which to learn, with first-rate facilities that include the latest equipment and IT, state-of-the-art teaching rooms and industry led technology.

2013 saw the opening of the brand new Riverside East building on campus, home to Engineering, Pharmacy and Life Sciences. Riverside East also boasts the remarkable new library – a bright green turret which is home to nine storeys of books, journals, reference materials and quiet study areas.

Head to the top of the library for stunning views of the city, with rolling green hills on one side and the rooftops of the silver city on the other.

RGU is the perfect university for sport enthusiasts, with an on-campus modern sport centre only a few metres away from ICRGU. This provides the best facilities to keep fit and have fun, including a swimming pool, climbing wall, sports hall, exercise studios, gym and café. RGU also takes part in the annual Aberdeen Boat Race each spring – this is an exciting and competitive time for everyone involved!

Exceptional reputation

Robert Gordon University: boost your employability with an internship

The degrees at Robert Gordon University have been designed to offer students an effective combination of academic study and practical experience. This combination of learning helps the University to develop highly capable and confident graduates that are ready to perform more effectively in the workplace upon graduation.

A large number of Robert Gordon University degrees offer students an internship experience, ranging from a few weeks up to a full year. This opportunity allows students to gain hands on experience, increasing confidence and becoming a valued member of a professional team. Please see individual programme pages for further information on specific internship opportunities available.

Employers in return also recognise the value of welcoming a Robert Gordon University internship student into their organisation. Many find that the students bring a new perspective into the workplace, supplying fresh ideas and a high level of enthusiasm.

- Robert Gordon University has fantastic links with industry, both in the UK and globally.
- Internships are available at undergraduate and postgraduate levels.
- Full year internship is not a sandwich course – it is undertaken as a credit bearing third year.*
- There are opportunities to make contacts and develop important networking skills.
- Helps to build confidence and key interpersonal skills.

- There is potential to earn a salary.
- Students undertaking an internship lasting a full academic year pay significantly reduced fees.

Internship teams at Robert Gordon University work closely with students to ensure they are prepared and fully aware of the specific internship opportunities available to them. The student can also influence where they would like to go, whether in the UK or overseas.†

“Work placements lasting up to a year are the norm, helping an employment record that has been Scotland’s best for several years and consistently one of the leaders in the UK.”

(The Times University Guide, 2011)

“I am currently out on placement in my third year and really enjoying my time at a marketing agency in Manchester. I am discovering so many things every day and I feel so lucky to get this opportunity. I'm also really enjoying wearing business suits on a daily basis!”

My ICRGU: Amina Kazhina, Kazakhstan

* Students undertaking a full placement year in third year must return for their fourth year, resulting in a bachelor's degree with honours.

Our commitment to student support

At ICRGU we understand that moving abroad to study at university is a really big step. Therefore, we provide all the services you need to help you settle into life in Aberdeen and make the most of your time in the UK.

Academic services

You may find studying at university in the UK different from your previous educational experiences. So to help you at each step of the way, ICRGU's dedicated team of lecturers, and the wider college team, will assist and encourage you throughout your studies.

The ICRGU syllabus is specifically designed to help you develop the core knowledge and skills you need to succeed at Robert Gordon University and become a highly employable graduate.

Subjects at ICRGU adhere closely to the programme structure at the University. Our lecturers come from a diverse range of personal and professional backgrounds in order to give you a fully rounded learning experience.

Student services

ICRGU takes your non-academic needs very seriously and we understand that this is central to your student experience here too. Our student services team will be available throughout your studies to provide ongoing support. The team can also give you advice and support to help you settle into your new home quickly. We also have a dedicated emergency phone line for ICRGU students, making help available to you 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Before your arrival the student services team will provide you with your pre-departure guide, including accommodation confirmation. They can also arrange a meet and greet from Aberdeen International Airport for maximum peace of mind and to make your arrival as easy as possible.

Orientation

Orientation is a series of activities and workshops where you will receive valuable information to help you settle into ICRGU.

During orientation you will:

- receive a welcome pack
- select and enrol in modules
- create a timetable
- receive your Robert Gordon University student ID card
- be introduced to ICRGU staff, services and facilities

- tour the University campus and city of Aberdeen
- get help opening a bank account
- register with a doctor and dentist.

Sports and activities

We understand you are coming to the UK primarily to study, but enjoying your social life and participating in extra-curricular activities is important too. ICRGU runs sporting events and activities throughout the year, including a football team, and we encourage you to get involved.

ICRGU staff will also organise regular events and activities to allow you to get to know your new classmates, as well as Aberdeen, the city that you will now call home.

Student Union

As an ICRGU student you can take advantage of all that the University student union, RGU:Union, has to offer. The union is the city centre base and meeting point for many of the sports clubs, societies and student events.

Library services

Robert Gordon University has a seven storey, state-of-the-art library which stocks an extensive range of books and journals that will prove invaluable during your studies.

Campus security

ICRGU is located in the centre of the Garthdee campus, an area designed with the safety and happiness of students in mind. The campus is fully staffed and so even if you are studying in the library during the evening you can be sure that you will feel safe.

Religious facilities

Robert Gordon University has a multi-faith centre based on the Garthdee campus, providing you with space for prayer or reflection, just a short walk from ICRGU.

Student feedback

ICRGU listens to the students who study with us and feedback is sought from students on a variety of issues within the college. ICRGU has a student forum and nominated student representatives. The academic services team continuously review the academic content of the stages delivered at ICRGU to ensure they meet the needs of our students.

"I would sum up my time so far at university as a wonderful experience. If you study here, make sure you enjoy every second of this amazing student life!"

Aberdeen: the energy capital of Europe

Aberdeen, also known as The Silver City, due to the sparkling granite stone used to build it, is a cosmopolitan and vibrant city located on the north-east coast of Scotland.

The perfect student city

University education has been available in the city for over 500 years, with 30,000 students currently calling Aberdeen home. The city is perfectly set up for student life, offering a huge variety of shops, restaurants, cafés, bars, cinemas, comedy and music venues, sporting facilities and theatres.

As one of the UK's most affluent and economically stable cities, Aberdeen has a high quality of life and is the ideal place to live life to the full and gain the ultimate student experience.

Explore and get active

Aberdeen is surrounded by miles of beautiful coastline and has many enchanting Scottish castles to explore (including Balmoral Castle – Scottish residence of the Queen). The city is also a short distance from some of the most spectacular mountain ranges in the world, as well as Cairngorm National Park – the largest National Park in Britain.

The city boasts its own Scottish Premier League football team, Aberdeen Football Club, who are former European champions. You can also play and watch numerous other sports in the city and surrounding area, including athletics, cricket, golf, rugby, swimming, tennis and adrenalin fuelled snow sports. When you're not studying, there's so much to do in your spare time!

Accessible and well connected

As a major global city with a vast business community, Aberdeen has an extensive transport network and boasts an international airport just five miles from the city centre. The airport offers flights to numerous destinations including major transit hubs; Amsterdam, Frankfurt, London and Paris.

The city is also very well connected, with regular rail and bus links that allow you to easily explore Scotland and the rest of the UK.

Thriving and inspiring

The energy industry is of huge value to the Aberdeen region, currently providing employment for over 200,000 people in Scotland. Aberdeen is a global centre of excellence for the research, development and sustainability of the industry – this is why many multinational oil and gas companies, such as BP, Shell and Total, choose to have their European headquarters based within the city.

As a student in Aberdeen, the presence of this influential global industry will offer you many benefits. The University's links with industry will give you direct exposure to projects and research where you can work alongside and in close collaboration with industry leaders. In addition, many of the University's lecturers are industry experts with extensive knowledge in their field.

A home from home

Aberdeen's status as one of the world's primary oil and gas hubs means the population of the city is both international and multicultural. There are numerous places of worship within the city, including churches and mosques, and you will also find restaurants and supermarkets offering food from across the globe, providing a taste of home no matter where you come from.

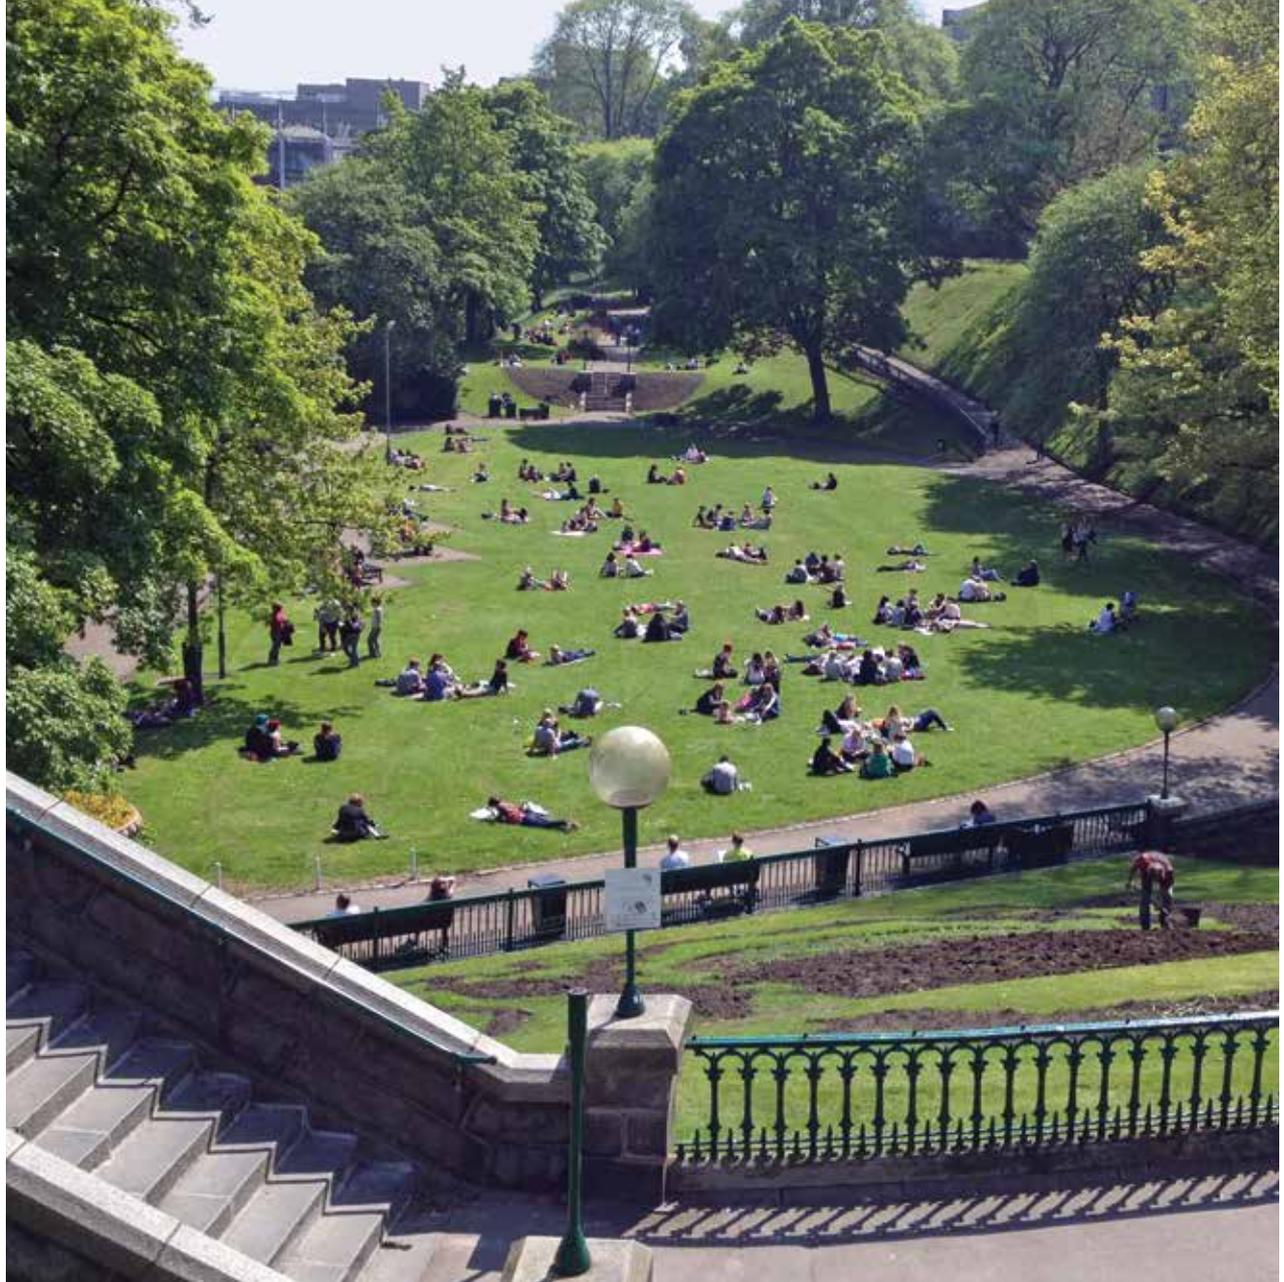

Aberdeen is the ultimate city for students from all over the world. It has everything you need to make your time at Robert Gordon University not only productive and enjoyable, but also truly unforgettable.

Aberdeen's energy industry

- Aberdeen is the centre of the UK's oil and gas industry.
- Over 900 energy and service companies are based in Aberdeen.
- 38 billion barrels of oil have been produced since the 1970s.
- Over 100,000 people are employed by the energy industry in Aberdeen city and shire.
- Aberdeen boasts the greatest number of subsea engineering experts in the world.

Health and Life Sciences (Forensic, Analytical, Biomedical and Nutrition)

The Health and Life Science degrees at Robert Gordon University are designed to respond to the needs of these constantly evolving and forward thinking professions. For those with strengths in the key science subjects, these degrees offer a wide range of career opportunities across numerous industry sectors, including environmental, food and drink, law enforcement, oil and gas, pharmaceuticals and research.

Employment and career options

Potential careers: Biomedical Scientist, Corrosion Scientist, Forensic Scientist, Laboratory Engineer, Nutritionist, Production Chemist, Research Scientist.

Average starting salaries

£18,000–£21,000
(within six months, UniStats 2013)

When studying at Robert Gordon University, you will be immersed in the industry through a variety of internship and practical experiences, including close interaction with practitioners. Each of the Health and Life Sciences degrees includes between 30–40 percent of hands on experience; just one of the reasons why the graduate employment rate for these degrees is so high.

BSc (Hons) Nutrition

An important element of the course is a minimum 12 week practical work placement in the final year (subject to availability) that gives students an opportunity to try out their skills and gain confidence in the workplace. You may work alongside a nutritionist in research, food and drink company or a government agency.

BSc (Hons) Forensic and Analytical Science

This problem solving degree looks far beyond the skills featured in CSI! Analytical Chemistry is a key focus, helping increase employability across sectors, such as oil and gas and pharmaceuticals, and developing a vast range of investigative techniques. The development of a brand new Crime Scene House and the inclusion of court room 'expert witness' role play will help ensure all aspects of this fascinating profession are covered.

BSc (Hons) Biomedical Science

Biomedical Scientists work in partnership with doctors, nurses and other healthcare professionals, performing many different roles in research, the diagnosis of disease, the evaluation of treatment methods and research.

BSc (Hons) Bioscience with Biomedical Science

Offering a varied range of modules, this degree looks deeper than purely human biology, with opportunities for graduates in scientific publishing, secondary school teaching, forensic analysis and environmental consultancy.

Postgraduate Internships

Robert Gordon University offers postgraduate students the opportunity to undertake a short internship as part of specific MSc degrees. Internships are not common across postgraduate study, but the University recognises the value of additional experience at this level. You will undertake a specific project for a company in the UK, and help further develop key skills, as well as build confidence, experience and contacts within industry. These will only be available to students if joining the June Pre-Master's at ICRGU.

- MSc Management 7 weeks
- MSc Project Management 6-8 weeks
- MSc Corporate Communications and Public Affairs 4 weeks
- MSc Information and Library Studies 4 weeks

* Stated Robert Gordon University fees are a guide only and are subject to change. For the most up-to-date fee listings, please visit rgu.ac.uk.

† These programmes are available in the June intake only.

All ICRGU course fees are subject to review.

English language requirements

The language of instruction at ICRGU is English. To attain entry into the undergraduate or postgraduate programme, you must be able to demonstrate you have a suitable level of English proficiency. You can do this by obtaining one of the results shown in the table below.

Undergraduate programmes		Postgraduate programmes
University Foundation	Year 1	Pre-Master's
IELTS 5.5 or equivalent	IELTS 5.5 or equivalent	IELTS 6.0 or equivalent

ICRGU is also able to accept evidence of English competency through a wide range of other qualifications including GCSEs, WAEC, HKDSE and International Baccalaureate (IB).

Pre-sessional English

ICRGU's pre-sessional English language courses take place in the same classrooms as our academic programmes. Students studying English language are part of ICRGU from the very start and have access to the same university facilities as those in academic programmes.

Successful completion of your English language programme guarantees you a place on your chosen academic programme at ICRGU. By completing an English language course at ICRGU, you will:

- increase your understanding of English
- improve your pronunciation, grammatical skills and reading comprehension
- develop a broad, academically useful vocabulary
- improve your ability to participate in seminars and take useful lecture notes
- build on your writing skills for essays, reports and assignments

- become confident at public speaking and delivering presentations
- develop research skills so you can read academic texts, journals and papers efficiently and effectively
- develop the independent study skills required for success in a university environment

Pre-sessional English language is offered directly prior to each academic intake. Following your English language classes of a minimum 20 hours per week and satisfactory completion of assessments, you will progress to the academic part of your study.

Navitas bursaries and scholarships

Navitas family bursaries

Navitas offers financial support in the form of family bursaries. A bursary applies where two or more students from the same family study with a Navitas member institution.*

The bursary is equivalent to 10 percent of the tuition fee of your programme of study.†

Navitas academic merit scholarships

Navitas is committed to helping you achieve your career goals by offering scholarships to outstanding students.

Each term, Navitas colleges* award two students with academic merit scholarships.

For more information, talk to an Advisor at your college about how to apply for a merit scholarship or visit individual college websites and search for 'scholarships and bursaries'.

* The Navitas family bursary and academic merit scholarships are offered to students studying at ACBT, AUSI, BCUIIC, Curtin College, Curtin University Sydney, Curtin Singapore, CRIC, EIBT, EIC, Eynesbury, FIC, HIC, ICM, ICP, ICRGU, ICWS, La Trobe Melbourne, La Trobe University Sydney Campus, LBIC, Macquarie City Campus, MIBT, MIBT Indonesia, Navitas at UMass Boston, Navitas at UMass Dartmouth, Navitas at UMass Lowell, Navitas at WKU, Navitas at UNH, NIC, PIBT, PUIC, QIBT, SAIBT, SIBT and UCIC only.

Certificate programmes may also be known or registered as Foundation Studies or University Transfer Programme Stage I. Diploma programmes may also be known or registered as Undergraduate programme, University Transfer Programme (UTP), University Transfer Programme Stage II, University Programme.

The Navitas bursary is not applicable to any English language programme or any component of an English language programme offered by a Navitas member institution.

Navitas academic merit awards are offered to students studying in the UK at BCUIIC, CRIC, EIC, HIC, ICP, ICRGU, ICWS, LBIC and PUIC only. This information is correct as at the time of printing and may be subject to change without notice or at the discretion of Navitas member institutions or Navitas Limited.

ICRGU Accommodation

The majority of students choose to live in ICRGU managed, purpose built, student accommodation.

ICRGU student accommodation is city centre based, located on the main bus route to campus – a typical journey to university will take 20–30 minutes. Students enjoy being located in the city centre, near the cinemas, shops, cafes, restaurants, supermarkets and rail station.

The accommodation offers modern, en-suite rooms in five bedroom flats. All rooms include a shower room, study area and a shared kitchen/lounge where you can socialise with your flat mates and new friends.

There is also an on-site laundry room, bike storage facilities, CCTV and secure door entry system, ensuring you feel safe and secure at all times. There are limited car parking spaces available at an additional cost.

You will live with other ICRGU students, giving you the perfect opportunity to get to know your classmates and make friends.

On receiving an Unconditional Offer from ICRGU, students will receive a comprehensive Lifestyle Guide. This will contain information on variety of study related topics, including applying for your visa, accommodation and arrival details.

All utility bills, contents insurance and internet access is included in the room price. There is also 24 hour security, on-site customer service and maintenance teams for your reassurance.

It's very important to secure your ICRGU accommodation early so that you are not disappointed. Ask about availability early in the application process.
